

Get the Business Information You Need to Succeed

If you're starting or expanding a Connecticut business, or thinking about relocating here, chances are you have a lot of questions.

Fortunately, we have the answers.

Connecticut's Business Response Center is here to make it easy for you to learn what you need to know about doing business in our state.

When you reach us during business hours, you'll get a prompt response from one of our knowledgeable, customer-focused information specialists. We'll help clarify your needs, explain requirements for your business type, search possible site locations, and even create a customized packet of information for you. We'll also put you in touch with the right people and resources – we work closely with Connecticut's Business Development Team and other state and local organizations, and can arrange for a representative to be assigned to you for a particular request.

With the information you receive, you'll be well on your way to growing your business in Connecticut.
